Freed by God's Love

by Pastor Katie Baardseth

What is Lutheran?

Do you ever get asked this? Maybe you've asked it for yourself. A dental assistant asked me recently, as she confirmed my occupation. I had to answer fast before my mouth went completely numb, "We cut to the chase- it's all about love, the love of God given through Jesus."

Aside from all the caricatures that Garrison Keillor has sent up regarding what Lutheran is, it's primarily a way of understanding Jesus. Jesus comes to free us from whatever drags us down. Jesus is the good news, or gospel, that enlivens you, me and the whole world. Writer Anna Madsen says, "the gospel frees us to see death in all its forms, to then call a thing what it is, to renounce that which is not of God, to tend to those who mourn or suffer, and in Jesus' name, usher in comfort, hope, justice, and something new."

Faith doesn't begin with me or my good works, or my ability to please God. Instead, everything starts with God's desire to love me first. That's what Jesus came to teach, live and finally died and rose to accomplish. My part is to receive this great gift. To live with gusto, confidence, hope and joy- not in the future, but today!

It's a shattering reversal. Relationship with God is not transactional, like so many other relationships in this world around us. If you do this, then you deserve this. That is a transactional relationship. That's not how God wants it to be with us. In Jesus, God gives us everything first, without strings attached. That makes it a transformational relationship. What was dead is now alive! What was hopeless is now hope-filled! We are free, free to respond to God's deep, abiding love.

What is Lutheran? Let's cut to the chase. We've been freed by God's love. Where will God's love take you today?

In Holy Baptism, God claims us as God's children and makes us saints for eternity. In worship, we give thanks for all the saints "who from their labors rest." We rejoice in the hope of the resurrection. We ask God for the faith to live as followers of Jesus in our ongoing pilgrimage on earth until we too, one day, join with all the saints in heaven.

We give thanks for these saints of Midvale Community Lutheran Church who have died in the past year and now live with God in heaven. During worship, we will read their names and ring a bell to honor their memory.

November 5 – The Future of the Wakefield Property with Members of the Congregational Council and Social Ministry Team

Since 1994, our church has been the owner of the house at 4322 Wakefield Street, our next-door neighbor, a three-bedroom house with an attached garage. The house has been part of our ministry in different ways over the years, and most recently served as transitional housing as part of a partnership with The Road Home and the Madison Community Foundation. Our most recent sponsored family moved out of the house in February 2023, and since then we have been able to accomplish significant and necessary maintenance work on the property.

We now need to make decisions about how we might use the Wakefield House. At this week's Adult Forum, members of our Church Council will share: an assessment of the current condition of the house, a proposal for future use from the Immigration Action Team, additional possible options for the property. We hope this will be an interactive discussion where our church leaders can hear your thoughts about the various options and opportunities presented to us, as we try to discern the best possible path for our congregation.

In this discussion, it may be helpful to bear in mind our mission and vision statements, which you can find on our website, midvalelutheran.org/mission

November 12 – Revisiting the Marquette and Joliet Expedition of 1673: Lifting Up Long-Ignored Native Voices, with Michael Douglas

Once heralded as a great voyage of discovery, the mapping of a canoe route from Montreal to the Mississippi River had profound consequences for the indigenous cultures of the region. How we view this remarkable, albeit challenging achievement today is altogether different from how it was viewed one hundred years ago, or even fifty years ago. This conversation will identify long ignored Native voices and seek to explore the ambitions of New France against a background of European disease, internecine warfare, and dispossession of Native lands. As a veteran re-enactor and devoted enthusiast of material culture, Michael Douglas will bring a collection of historic objects to help illustrate the talk and perhaps inspire conversation.

Michael Douglas is an historian and was the site Director of the Wisconsin Historical Society's Villa Louis for 30 years. Michael spent 5 post-retirement summers working as a Park Ranger at Effigy Mounds National Monument. He has lived and worked in Prairie du Chien, on the banks of the Mississippi River, for 40 years.

November 19 - Honey Harvesting with Kurt Runzheimer

Midvale Member Kurt Runzheimer and his family have been keeping bees and harvesting honey in Dane County for more than 25 years. In an Adult

Forum in Spring of 2022, the Runzheimer family shared how they raise and care for the bees and some of the environmental challenges they face.

In this session, Kurt will talk about how honey is made, how it's influenced by the environment surrounding the beehives, and the process of collecting and sharing honey. Please join us to learn about the gifts of God's creation shared with us through the bees.

November 26 - No forum, Thanksgiving weekend

Zoom link - You do not need to register to attend the Adult Forum. Reference our weekly newsletter, The Moments, for the Zoom link or contact the church office. The Zoom link will allow you to participate with video and audio using a computer or mobile device, or with audio only using a landline phone. The same link will be used for all sessions.

Feedback Welcome!

The Adult Education Committee welcomes all thoughts, feedback and ideas for future Adult Forum programming. Please email adulthoodeducation@midvalelutheran.org or reach out to a Committee member directly.

Church grounds fall cleanup November 4

The Building and Grounds Committee is organizing a fall cleanup for the church grounds from 8:00-10:00am on Saturday, November 4. You can bring your own yard tools, or just show up and there will be tasks for everyone. Thank you for helping to care for our grounds and preparing them for winter!

MIDVALE COMMUNITY LUTHERAN CHURCH IS A COMMUNITY OF BELIEVERS IN JESUS CHRIST, CALLED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT TO PRAISE, LIVE AND SHARE GOD'S LOVE.

New member welcome November 11-12

Join us as we recognize and welcome new members in worship this weekend! If you would like to be included as a new member of Midvale, please contact one of the pastors or the church office. We look forward to welcoming you!

Midvale Worship Band

The Midvale Worship Band will be playing for 10:30am worship once a month this fall. We are bringing together familiar songs with new arrangements (think guitars and percussion!) and new contemporary and praise music to our worship time. You can find a playlist of the worship band's repertoire on our website, midvalelutheran.org/music-ministries. The worship band will be playing on the following dates:

- Sunday, November 12th
- Sunday, December 3rd

Ecumenical Thanksgiving Eve Worship November 22 at 6:30pm

All are welcome to attend this community worship at Bethany United Methodist Church, 3910 Mineral Point Rd., Madison. Sponsoring churches in addition to Bethany include, Midvale Community Lutheran, Covenant Presbyterian and Westminster Presbyterian.

Can you help set up Holy Communion or clean up after worship?

We offer the sacrament of Holy Communion at each worship time. Holy Communion is an essential means of receiving God's grace and nourishes us for our journey of life and faith. Setting up and cleaning up for communion is a straightforward process and usually takes 15-30 minutes.

One volunteer shares how it is a meditative and meaningful experience to prepare the sacrament before worship. You can learn with someone who has done it before.

Individuals, couples or families can help - it is something elementary and older children could easily assist. Would you be willing to give it a try? Please contact the church office or one of the pastors to get started.

Deck the halls December 2 at 9:00am

You are invited to come and help decorate our worship space for the Advent/Christmas season! We'll gather at church on Saturday, December 2 at 9:00am. We expect this to take about 2 hours, but come for as little or as much as you can. Members of the AWE committee will be there to give instructions. We especially need volunteers who are comfortable climbing ladders and carrying bins full of decorations.

Past participants have said what a fun and joyful experience it is to be a part of! If you have any questions please contact Suzy Tegge (suzymail@charter.net) or Nan Wild (njkwild@yahoo.com).

Clara Davel's Midvale story

Clara Davel, a high school youth member of Midvale, shared what a difference it has meant in her life to be a part of our congregation during a worship talk on October 15. Her inspiring message is printed here to remind us of the impact we make together.

Did you know, I was 2 weeks old in my first family photo in the church directory. I wanted to share this just so you know that when I say Midvale Community Lutheran Church has been with me my entire life, I mean my. Entire. Life. all 17 years.

Growing up attending Sunday school, worship, being a part of the Christmas Programs and VBS, joining confirmation and being the one and only confirmation class confirmed in the church parking lot. I have always seen Midvale as a safe and calming place for me. When I was little, I was always scared to go down to the basement of my house alone, but at that same age I had no fear walking around the basement halls of the church alone in the dark because I always knew that nothing could get me there because it was God's house, still is.

be afraid to go anywhere because God is protecting me everywhere I go. In case anyone was wondering, I am not scared of my basement anymore.

I also have always known that I will never be judged here, this community is so welcoming, loving and fun. I can't think of one bad experience that I have had here. In fact that's the reason I felt so comfortable sharing this today.

Since my confirmation I have backpacked with the high school youth group in Montana, traveled to Denver with the group for our mission trip this past summer and have enjoyed being a leader for VBS and helping to teach Sunday school. I know that this is God at work through me, through my actions, to help this church, our community and the world around us.

Through Midvale and the people at Midvale, I have grown in my faith and connections with God. I now strive to be as caring as the shepherds in Sunday school. I strive to be as adventurous as the friends I have met at church. I strive to be a great leader like the great faith leaders I have looked up to since I was little. I strive to have childlike faith like the kids that come to learn about God every week. And I strive to show the love and kindness that has been shown to me at this church to everyone I meet.

Midvale Lutheran Community Church has been a part of my life until now and I know it will remain with me no matter where I go. Thank you.

Lutheran World Relief - How our church is making a difference in Ukraine, Türkiye and more

November 8, 1:30pm at Midvale

Join us to hear from the Rev. Tim Krick who will share about the work of LWR in saving lives and caring for our neighbors around the world.

- Hear his account of meeting a family with young children who will be moving into temporary, long-term housing in Türkiye after the devastating earthquake. Before your love built a container city, this family was living in a 10'x10' leaky tent with no relief from the heat or cold weather conditions.
- Learn how the gift of a simple wood burning stove saved the life of a couple living in previously occupied Russian territory in Ukraine. Your generosity made possible warm meals and heat through the cold winter.
- See LWR's most recent quilt and kit distribution for our neighbors in Ukraine.

Gathering in growth and grace - your support is needed for 2024 - thank you!

When the Stewardship Committee chose the theme to this year's Stewardship Drive, "Gathering in Growth and Grace", we reflected on the fact that we gather together to connect not only with each other but with the community and the world. In Matthew's Gospel, God said that when two or three are gathered in his name, he is among them. God is present at all times in our lives and is on the loose in all the ministries at Midvale Lutheran. We give thanks to God for giving us the gifts of time, talent and treasure and we give thanks to you for responding to the call. The response we received to this year's drive has been tremendous. You have truly made a difference. Because of your pledge, we will be able to continue the work we do for the members of our congregation, our community and our world. Thank you!

If you have not had a chance to make a pledge, it is not too late to do so. Please return the form that was enclosed in the Stewardship packet, go online to midvalelutheran.org/serve-share/financial-giving-and-stewardship, or use the QR code here.

A note about the Building Fund: We are on the cusp of paying off our mortgage from the 2010 Sanctuary renewal, with about $30,000 remaining. Extra gifts over and above what is needed for our daily ministry by the end of 2023 and additional donations designated for the Building Fund give us the possibility of retiring our debt in the near future. We are not asking for pledges for the Building Fund for 2024. However, continued giving to the Building Fund in 2024, if you have a desire to do so, will aid us in paying off our current mortgage. Any gifts made toward the Building Fund that are above what is needed to pay off our mortgage will be a down payment on our Ministry Wing project.

Thank you again! We truly appreciate your support and generosity!

Help Others in Need by Dylan Abraham

*When people hurt,
Take the lead,
Give them assistance,
Help others in need.*

*We do to others,
As we would to us,
Give from the heart,
It is a must.*

*If someone weeps,
Tears down the face,
Help them out,
In any place.*

*Your brothers and sisters,
Are all in need,
Help them out,
Plant a seed.*

*Remember that Jesus,
Gave to us indeed,
Have a heart,
Help others in need.*

Congregation approves fundraising for the Ministry Wing Renovation

A unanimous vote of approval at the special congregational meeting on October 15 affirmed moving forward with GSB Fundraising. GSB will work with our church to raise funds for the vision of a renewed Ministry Wing. The project will create welcoming, functional and flexible ministry spaces and improve our energy efficiency. GSB will begin working with congregational leaders this fall. The primary fundraising campaign will begin in the spring. Look for more information in the coming months.

NAMI-Dane Walk Thank you

The NAMI-Dane County Walk event was a great success this year. As many of you know, the walk is NAMI Dane's main fundraising event providing education and support for persons living with a mental illness and their families. Once again, thanks to Midvale Community Lutheran Church, as well as individual members, you helped raise just under $3,000. Your generosity goes a long way to help those with the brain disorders of mental illnesses. I want to again reiterate how generous, thoughtful, and supportive you have been. You make a difference. Sincerely, Dylan Abraham.

Thank you from the Midvale LWR Quilters

The Midvale Lutheran World Relief quilters thank you for your contributions in helping others around the world in need of kits and quilts.

This year Midvale shipped 158 quilts to help people all over the world to keep warm, for shelter and other functional uses. The Midvale LWR quilters have sent over 6600 quilts since the early 1970's.

The Midvale shipment also includes 74 personal care kits, 20 baby care kits, and 111 school kits. A huge thank you to everyone who contributed items for the school kits, the Vacation Bible School who filled the backpacks, and to Pam Frey for coordinating the backpack supplies and packing. Thanks to everyone who contributed items to the Baby Care kits. And thank you for all the Personal Care kits.

Thank you to Al Blanch, John Warnick and Jay Wians for transporting the quilts and kits to the boxcar.

We always need volunteers to sew backpacks for next year's school kits; fabric kits are available. Another possibility is to make tops and backs for quilts; fabric is available. Please call Karen Mandt 833-6960 for more information about backpacks and quilts.

We thank you, Midvale members, for your generous gifts. They are what keep us going!
